MICCO Names VanMarter Operations Manager

Pontiac, Michigan—November 1, 2007. . .MICCO Construction, LLC has named Bill VanMarter as Operations Manager - Hospitality Division. The hospitality division focuses on the expansion and renovation on existing hotel, resort and gaming properties. Under VanMarter's direction, the division will also expand its offerings to include new, ground-up construction.

"MICCO Construction will benefit from Bill's strategic thinking and project management expertise," states Bob Washer, Executive Vice President and General Manager of MICCO. "Not only is he well equipped to strengthen our existing client base but his drive to develop premier properties for the hospitality and gaming industry is unmatched."

With more than 25 years of diverse construction experience, VanMarter will provide overall management and leadership for the hospitality-focused team. Since joining MICCO in 1999 as a project manager, he has managed many projects including McCarran International Airport in Las Vegas, Comerica Bank and the General Motors Renaissance Center.
